HIGHS

“It’s the kind of music you want to listen to on a road trip or a beach day or even a snow day that you wish was a beach day.
Hello Giggles

“Kinda like Vampire Weekend- meets- Passion Pit, with the addition of a female vocal – so maybe mix some Best Coast in there ... We happen to dig all these bands pretty heavy, so finding HIGHS is pretty radical.”
Nylon Magazine

“Monstrously upbeat... and beautifully composed. There’ s a real togetherness and understanding to their sound.”
Crack In The Road

"It’s the kind of track that you can easily imagine filling a stadium or festival – somewhere we’re sure the band will be in no time"
The Wild Honey Pie

“One of...the most original and impressive newcomers.”
Clash

“They seem to reach the unfathomable, blending the best parts of Vampire Weekend, Local Natives, and Dirty Projectors.”
Unrecorded.mu

“The live performance of their tracks is otherworldly, with sometimes all four band members contributing to their whimsical harmonies.”
Never Enough Notes